Explore FBC is a 4 week class designed for those adults considering joining First Baptist Church (or those who have joined recently) and would like to understand why it is important to be a member, what FBC is all about, and how they can get plugged in. This 4-week class will be during our Sunday School hour (10am) beginning Feb. 5 and will conclude on Feb. 26th. Even if you're already involved in a Sunday School class, we only want to pull you away for 4 weeks to help encourage you in understanding the "big" picture of a church family.

Minute With Matt

Hello Church Family

Wow! What a weekend we had over MLK! DNow was going on with 74 students, 12 college leaders, and 10 different host homes! DNow is not just a youth event but an entire church weekend. We also had at least 9 different Sunday School classes bring meals throughout the weekend, feeding about 100 people each time! I can not begin to share my gratitude to everyone who helped make this weekend possible. So many moving parts, so many sacrificial people are what make DNow the success that it is.

I have a couple of highlights that I want to share. If you would like some fun, crazy stories, come find me! Saturday night I received a text from one of the college leaders that 3 boys in his group got saved during small groups!!! That following Sunday morning, that entire host home of 9/10th grade boys came down front. Not only did those 3 boys want to make it public, but one other wanted salvation and another wanted to re-dedicate his life!!! God moves in amazing and mighty ways. A wave of emotion came over the entire church as they gave a standing ovation for these young men.

My last joy from the weekend came Sunday night. I invited all the parents to the final worship service. I was not sure how many would come. Over 70 family members of these students showed up for worship! I was so excited to see these moms, dads, and siblings worship with us for the final time that weekend.

Again, thanks to each of you who volunteered your home, stayed up late with us, provided us a meal, or gave up your seat (voluntarily or not!). DNow is always one of my favorite weekends of the year, and this one did not disappoint!!

In Christ, Matt
