

No Meal This Wednesday Night, May 1

Bible Drills, Discipleship Classes, and Prayer Meeting will still meet at 6:00pm

One of our church families has been blessed with an Unexpected Blessing/Adoption and we want to help them out by providing these items...diapers, wipes, Similac 360 Total Care formula, and whatever else you mom's recommend! This is for a newborn girl. Items can be dropped off in the church office.

It's a great day for FBC

I can't express how grateful I am to be your pastor, and to serve at a church with such a beautiful heart for God. By God's grace, we are seeing people saved, baptized, and set on the road to discipleship.

This Sunday, it is an honor to have Pastor Jay Stephenson preach. Pastor Jay is planting the first Tennessee Baptist Church in the Blue Oval region. He will be back Wednesday, May 8, for a Q&A, and then on Sunday, May 19, we are asking for a public commitment from those who will go to help the new church start. If you have any interest, whatsoever, please join us for the Q&A Wednesday night, May 8.

Church Picnic

Tonight is our church picnic and egg toss. Everything will get started at 5:00. Here's what you need to bring: a chair, a side dish or dessert, and a backyard style game if you'd like. Many families bring corn hole boards and other fun games. Feel free to bring yours. The church is providing the hamburgers, hotdogs, and drinks.

Mighty May

May is a crazy time of year for us. Tipton Christian Academy has their spring musical "Frozen" next week, and then they have multiple "end of the year" events and graduations. For the church we have three major Sunday events: Mother's Day, May 12, and Senior Recognition, May 19. We also have our traditional Memorial Day weekend outdoor service, Sunday, May 26. One outdoor service at 10:30, bring your own chair, and we provide a free cookout lunch afterwards.

God has been so good to our church. I'm trusting Him for more as we continue to glorify Him and impact our community, the country, and the continents.

Pastor Cliff
