Cliff's Notes

"We wish you a Merry Christmas. We wish you a Merry Christmas. We wish you a Merry Christmas, and a Happy New Year!"

It's time, it's time, it's time. The most wonderful time of the year. You have my blessing to put up the Christmas tree, hang those stockings, binge watch all your favorite Christmas movies, and turn your playlist to your favorite Christmas jams. And don't forget to drink that hot chocolate, and eat those cookies!

If you think I'm crazy, well you're not 100% wrong. I know it's just the start of November, and we still have my second favorite holiday to celebrate (Thanksgiving), but we are full-steam ahead on Christmas planning. We've been meeting and planning for months in preparation for our Christmas services and Live Nativity weekend. So much goes into this month. Many of you are signed up to help during the Live Nativity December 14-15. Currently, in the great hall you can sign up for our Women's ministry Christmas Dinner on December 5. Your Sunday School classes should be setting a date for their Christmas party soon, if they haven't already. You probably saw the Operation Christmas Child boxes in the hall, and in the next few weeks you'll see the Angel tree where we will grab an ornament and purchase a gift for a child. If you're relatively new here, and you'd like to help our festive and fun elves decorate our church, please email Cindy@fbccovington.org.

God is really moving in our church, and I'm so grateful to be here. I want to ask you to consider inviting family and friends to join us over these final two months of the year. Most people are willing to attend church if they're personally invited, but most of us never extend that invitation. Let's not waste the next opportunity. Be a "bringer" and bring a friend to church.

Blessings. (and Merry Christmas)

Cliff
