Explore FBC is a 4 week class designed for those adults considering joining First Baptist Church (or those who have joined recently) and would like to understand why it is important to be a member, what FBC is all about, and how they can get plugged in. This 4- week class will be during our Sunday School hour (10am) beginning Feb. 5 and will conclude on Feb. 26th.

Even if you're already involved in a Sunday School class, we only want to pull you away for 4 weeks to help encourage you in understanding the "big" picture of a church family.

Cliff's Notes

This week I spent two days at the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board for New Executive Board orientation. It's an honor to represent FBC Covington and the Big Hatchie Baptist Association at the state level. I can bring you a positive report from our state convention: we are laser focused in our goal and desire to win the lost to Jesus Christ. Dr. Randy Davis and the entire staff are faithfully serving over 3,000 Southern Baptist Churches in our state. To my surprise, our church is in the top 100 churches when it comes to attendance and Cooperative Program giving. We were in the top 50 this past year in baptisms. I give God all the glory and honor for what He is doing here in Covington.

I also want to give God praise for allowing his Spirit to move among us. I've heard from many folks who've expressed the Holy Spirit stirring in their hearts during our services. I believe, with all my heart, that the greatest sermon preached each week is between you and the Holy Spirit. When was the last time you've felt the Spirit move? When was the last time the Spirit convicted you, spoke to you, prompted you, enlightened you to the truths of the Bible? Will you open your heart to him today?

Blessings,
Pastor Cliff
